

Student Government organizations may be established at the schools of the district. These organizations, which should be appropriate to the age of the students, offer students practice in self-government and serve as channels for the expression of student opinions. Each school shall develop its own rules and regulations concerning student government organizations.

Adoption date: May 27, 1997
Reviewed: May 22, 2017